

Wesley E. Baker

March 26, 1958 - December 5, 2005

WESLEY BAKER, son of Delores Williams, was born on March 26, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 5, 2005. As a young child, Wesley was adored by his grandparents, who passed away during his childhood. He received his early education in Baltimore City Public Schools. He later obtained his GED and became proficient in several trades including lithography and calligraphy. Wesley was a very caring person who could put a smile on anyone's face. His love for his family definitely came first, especially his mother. He showered her with love and affection. Wesley was a proud father and grandfather. However, his heart was also big enough for his family and friends. The bottom line - "When he loved you, he loved you." Wesley became an avid reader and loved his Playstation games. His spirituality evolved each day and one of his proudest moments in life was meeting Cardinal Sheehan and Delegate Salima Marriott. His journey wasn't easy but he was at peace with himself and the bonds he had made with his loved ones. His final words: "God, Your son is coming home." Wesley was preceded in death by his brother, Kevin Baker Sr. He leaves to mourn: one son, Thuron Baker; his mother, Ms. Delores Williams; one brother, Gary Baker; one sister, Nikki Solomon; one grandson, Courtney; three nieces, Traeh, Tyrese and Abeni; three nephews, Kevin Jr., Derrick and Tevin; one great-nephew, Kevin III; devoted friends, Tanja, Stephen, Shirley, Andrea and Lori.

“ My condolences to the family and friends of Wesley E. Baker. 1 Corinthians 15:26 tells us that death is our "enemy" and death will be "destroyed." What hope is there for our dead loved ones? Acts 24:15 declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." When this occurs we learn that there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain on earth.(Matthew 5:5, Luke 23:43 and Isaiah 33:24) May these scriptures add to your strength and comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##S. “ Dear family & friends of Mr. Baker, I would like to express my sincere condolences for the passing of your dear loved one. I didn't know Mr. Baker personally, but I personally know the pain that comes with this enemy, death. I would just like to share a scripture in hopes of encouraging you and to help you to look toward the future with hope. Almighty God, Jehovah has given us a promise at Isaiah 26:19. It reads: "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine- they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust! Wouldn't it be wonderful to see, touch, hold and talk to your loved one again? Well, under God's new Kingdom, He promises to bring our loved ones back from the dust and we will be able to do just that. Please know that my prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
