“ I am sorry to read about the passing away of our love one. Please accept my sincere condolences. May the family find comfort and support in the Holy Scriptures knowing Jehovah God is aware of your distress during this time. God promise at John 5:25 which says : The hour is coming ...when the dead will hear the voice of son of God (Jesus) and those who have given heed will live. My deepest sympathies to your entire family.

“ My condolences go out to the family of Mr West Boyd. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Boyd, but I feel like I knew him through the funny and colorful stories his granddaughter always told. Mr. Boyd sounds like someone who enjoyed life to the fullest and lived it on his own terms, which is the best way to live. Though he is no longer here with you physically, his spirit and the wonderful memories he left will always be present and bring a smile to your heart. My family and I offer you our condolences during your loss, but are positive that you will always remember the fun and loving times you were blessed to share with your loved one.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at John 5:28,29 which gives us the hope of a resurrection.

“ To the family of Boyd West:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). We, the members of The Refuge Church would like to express our deepest sympathy and condolences in the passing of West Boyd, Sr. It is in times like these that we draw our strength from God and His undying love for us.

As we record his passing, please know and understand that Mr. Boyd is in the hands of a faithful and just God. We say to Brother Cornelius Crockett and to those who are left behind, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not to your own understanding”. Your church family is here for you and we will keep you in our prayers.

May God comfort your hearts during this difficult time.
