

Westley Junior Moses

August 30, 1968 - November 8, 2001

On August 30, 1968, Westley Junior Moses was born to Willie-Mae and the late Spencer Moses. He departed this life suddenly on November 8, 2001. Westley received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After his education, Westley went on to obtain employment in many different facets of life. Westley was multi-talented and had a love for barbering. He also held interest in music, instruments, comedy and a very special interest in poetry. He was a very out-going person with a winning smile. He loved and cherished his sons Dean and Keon. Westley was a big man, but had a soft spot for cats. Out of the many things a person could do in a day, he just wanted to laugh and have fun. Westley will be missed by all that loved him. He leaves to mourn his passing his mother, Willie-Mae Moses, two sons, Keon and Dean along with their mother, Tonya, two sisters, Regina and Lavern of Philadelphia, five aunts, five uncles, niece Nicole and very special niece Jessica along with a host of relatives and friends.
