

Weston Thomas Owens

February 28, 1926 - July 25, 2010

Weston Thomas Owens is the second of four children, born on February 28, 1926, 1926 to the late James and Mary (Bland) Owens. “Tommy”, as he was affectionately known accepted Christ at an early age and was called home to be with Christ after a brief illness on Sunday, July 25, 2010. Tommy was educated in Virginia Beach, VA in the public school system. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1942-1945. Tommy retired from Bethlehem Steele Co. after being employed there for nearly thirty years at which time he left Baltimore and moved to New York, He joined the Antioch Baptist Church in Queens, NY. Tommy was known as he “Major of Alwick Road” by his neighborhood for never being hesitant in showing his affection for others. Later, he returned to the Baltimore area and remained until his illness and entered the Genesis Health Care nursing home.

Tommy was a “social butterfly”, he enjoyed gatherings with his family and friends and cooking decadent dishes. One of the highlights of his day was being a caterer by trad. He also loved listening to gospel music and traveling. He leaves to cherish his memory; three children, Shirley Owens and Darryl Owens of Baltimore, MD. And Melissa Owens of New York Two sisters, Grace Crockett and Queenie Dovier of Washington, D.C. One brother, Arthur Owens. Two grand children, Shannon “Sugar Lump” and Kyra Owens of Baltimore, MD. One daughter-in-law Yvonne Owens, three nieces Vernetta Washington, Rochelle Dovier of Washington, DC, Grace Paige of New York four nephews,

Charles Dovie, Arthur Owens, Tommy and David Crockett of New York and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ From my visits to see you and the family in NYC, to your visits to DC...I thought I was your ONLY "Sugar Lump" but it turns out that we were all your "Sugar Lump" as you so affectionately called the girls. Uncle Tommy, you will be truly missed...we will love and cherish all the memories that you gave us...

*Love you -- one of your many " Sugar Lump(s)"
