Whitney Jasmine Steele was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 12, 1986. She began her Christian journey at New Antioch Baptist Church, where she was baptized. Whitney attended Van Bokkelen Elementary School and Oakland Mills Middle School. She graduated from Fort George G. Meade High School as a member of the Class of 2003. At the age of 12, Whitney worked at Progressive Motions Hair Studio as a Shampoo Tech. Afterwards, She attended Coppin University, and left to begin her career at Southwest Airlines. She left Southwest Airlines to join Verizon Wireless as an Account Liaison and was with the company for 10 years. Whitney recently received Employee of the Year. In 2017, she became a consultant for Pure Romance and enjoyed engaging with the company in her free time.

On April 26, 2016, Whitney wed Craig Steele and from that union they were blessed with two children, Craig Jr. (CJ) and Cayden. Her great-grandmother, Esther Mae Fitzgerald, who played a vital role in Whitney's childhood, preceded her in death. Whitney was a devoted wife and mother – a friend to all who knew her. Whitney had a powerful love for her boys, shoes, the Baltimore Ravens, and was very adventurous – she auditioned for American Idol!

On Thursday, September 13th, Whitney was called home. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Craig Steele; her sons, CJ and Cayden; her mother, Traci Frederick; her father, Ronell Frederick; her great-grandmother, Mildred Lucretia Eldredge; her grandmother, Barbara Lee Fitzgerald Jones; her sisters, Lisa Walker and Sasha Frederick; her brothers, Brian Frederick, Kenneth Persons and Jordan Davis; her nephews, Austyn Davis, Jonah Davis, and Jeremiah Johnson; her mother-in-law, Sarita Steele; her father-in-law, Tracey Steele; her sister in-law's, Angel Davis and Chantee Butler; her brother-in-law, Andre Butler; beloved dog, Diamond; and many other relatives and friends.

“Lady Steele, girl. I miss you do much. You were full of light and love and just an overall chill type of girl. Yoi never responded to crazy outburst here at work, you would just look at me with this smile or smirk. Probably saying. Cynthia is crazy. Yesterday I leaned back in my chair as I always do and went to call your name.. that was a crazy moment indeed. I miss you. VZDub Is not the same without you and you know, your PR Sisters miss you dearly already. We have been sharing pictures and videos and more. You know how we get down.. and of course we were going to have the biggest Hot PR Pink Flower arrangement at your services but instead we are going to bless your sweet boys with it. I light this pink candle for you girl. In memory of the good times. God has other plans for you, and we have to understand and accept that. You are an angel indeed. Heaven Just couldn't wait for you. Blessings and Love and Light to the Steele and Greenleaf family.

“ My sweet beautiful Whitney. You were amazingly kind, bright, beautiful and loving. You made my eyes light up each time I saw you since the day you were born. I named you Whitney and you were like my daughter. I remember your first steps, first words, and even your favorite toys as a child. I remember being so proud of you when you skipped a grade, went off to college, got engaged, married, gave birth to CJ and Cayden. I was always so proud of you, Whitney. You made everyone proud. I'm so heartbroken and pray for God to give us the strength to make it through. I love you, Whitney! You are forever in my heart and I thank God for “My Whitney” and all the moments we shared. I will miss you each and every day, my sweet angel.

“ I remember the day we were in a coaching and you told me you liked reptiles, specifically snakes. I don't remember if you were snake sitting or if the snake was your own. I remember another time during coaching when you told me that you knew your husband was your forever soulmate. At the time you'll weren't dating but you kept the faith. I remember when you told me you two started dating again, you were so happy- your smile was more radiant than usual. You introduced me to salt and vinegar Pringles, you always had a stash of goodies in your work drawer. When I left VZW we chatted occasionally over FB. I congratulated you on your marriage to your forever King, the Celebration of life for your two boys, and now my heart hurts because death seems so unfair. I would occasionally scroll through your FB photos and like your activities. You were always enjoying life with your family and friends. It's still hard to believe... You will always be remembered as a happy and kind person. My condolences and prayers are with your family and friends.

“ I honestly can't believe I am writing on your memory wall R.I.P. Whitney! This is unbelievable in so many ways. I have been fortunate enough to be blessed with five years of Sisterhood/Friendship with you! I am a grateful and a better person for knowing you and your family. You have left a huge void in our hearts, but the memories you left is with last us a lifetime. I will miss your beautiful smile, your humorous laughter and desire to eat good food. "We loved to eat"!! Thank you for loving and accepting me through all of my flaws. Thank you for supporting me through my dreams and goals and constantly cheering me on and encouraging me that I am worthy and deserve better in life. Thank you for always supporting my children and my family and listening to my crazy stories and rants. Rest Easy Beautiful, I will be there for your family until I take my last breath. God Bless the entire family and may you all receive the strength you need to get through this time of bereavement for Whitney Jasmine Steele 💜!

Love Always,

*Whit, when I left Hanover 2+ yrs ago , you were the last GEA that I worked with and you said that I would never forget the fun and the madness that we encountered on that project and that the next time I visited that you would not be there. This is not what I expected but God had a better plan for you than either one of us could imagine. This project on earth is over. You are the PM in heaven. You are missed. I am glad we had s chance to talk about marriage and life before I left. Now you are gone. Praying for peace and understanding for the family. God Bless you all! Maria Parrotte-Ivey
Until we meet again...*
