

Whitridge Thomas

September 11, 1938 - July 3, 2011

WHITRIDGHE THOMAS, Son of the late Rose Mae and Joseph Thomas , was born on September 11, 1938 in eastern Shore, Maryland.

“ Woody”as everyone called him, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. In 1958 he married Elizabeth Bailey Thomas an out of their marriage came four children and three stepchildren.

Woody was known for telling good old stories and riding his ten speed bicycle, he used to ride that bicycle everywhere. He always had this old saying, “ You two cent slick, three cent shy and five cent dumb for what you did.” Woody was a strong-minded man and worked at Baltimore International Warehouse until early 2000 after a lengthy illness.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Elizabeth Thomas; two brothers, Albert and John; seven sister, Clare, Dorothy, Evelyn, Mary, Diane, Ada and Delores; twelve children, Donzella, Vernita, Denise, Rose, Evelyn, Angela, Reginald, Alicia, James, Spencer, Doris and Tavon, there are ten other whose names are not known at this time; eighteen grandchildren, Shawntay M., Dominick B., Zachary M., Latesha J., Shanika B., Shaquawna D., Lacureia H., Linsey B., Darnell H., Shawnee T., DeKeya W., Paulette T., Galisa B., Cordaris B., Tical M., Nyeah T., Danielle and James M.; twelve great-grandchildren; two sons-in-law, James Brittingham and Melvin Cox; daughter-in-law, Paula Parham; and a host of other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his son, Thaddies, two grandchildren, Dekeya T. and Reginald B., four brothers, Joseph, Edward, Spencer and Bernard; and two sister, Ethel and Rose.
