“ To the family of Willie B. Cheatham –

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by mere words that I express and others. It takes time and comfort from God's word the Bible.

During your difficult time please allow God's word to provide you with a message of hope. The Scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future. In fact a faithful man, Job looked forward to a resurrection. He suffered greatly at Satan's hands. Unlike his false companions, who never mentioned the resurrection, Job drew comfort from this hope and asked: "If a man die, may he live again?" In answer Job himself declared: "All the days of my service would I wait, till my relief should come". Addressing his God, he acknowledged: "Thou wouldest call, and I would answer Thee". Concerning the feelings of our loving Creator, Job noted: "Thou wouldest have a desire to the work of Thy hands". Yes, God eagerly anticipates the time when faithful ones return to life in the resurrection. How this draws us closer to him as we meditate on the love and undeserved kindness that he shows us even though we are imperfect!

Your love one will have the prospect of enjoying life without end, free from all sickness and disease. (Job 33:25; Isaiah 35:5-7).

“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Mr. Cheatham's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, “Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.’ Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, “Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise.” Jesus statement meant that “All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.
