

Wilbert C. Hill

November 6, 1939 - August 2, 2005

WILBERT CURTIS HILL, son of the late Joseph Curtis and Lovonia Booker Hill, was born in Nottoway County, Virginia on November 6, 1939. He was the seventh of nine children and was preceded in death by one brother, Roy Harvey Hill Sr. He joined the Gravel Hill Baptist Church at an early age and served dutifully until he moved to Maryland. Wilbert was educated in the Nottoway County Public School System. After completing his education, he was inducted into the U.S. Army in 1960. Following an honorable discharge from the Army, he made his home in Baltimore, Maryland. He worked in industry for many years with his last job being as a longshoreman. He was married to Fannie Ann Turner and to this union he has Winona and Vincent. He later married Marion Mullen and to this union he has Nichole and Brian. His devoted companion, Margie Davis, brought to him three stepsons, Jerome, Tony and Will. Wilbert had numerous friends wherever he went and will be missed tremendously by everyone who knew him. He was a humble, friendly and jovial person who loved everyone. He was a devoted father and a true friend. It appeared that "Will" knew everyone he met on the streets because he was either calling their names when they met or they were calling his name. He will be truly missed by all who knew and loved him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his children, Winona Purcell, Nichole Hill and Vincent Hill all of Maryland and Brian Hill (Lori) of Minnesota; a devoted friend, Margie Davis; brothers, Joseph (Lovleen), Samuel and Calvin (Ina) of Burkeville, Virginia and Herbert (Ann) of Columbia, South Carolina; sisters, Bertha

(James) and Edith (Mearl) of Burkeville, Virginia and Lucy of Jetersville, Virginia; grandchildren, Simone, Eugene, Brianna, Courtney and Brian Jr.; devoted stepsons and their families; twenty-five devoted nieces and nephews, including Ruby (Pete) and Lois (Sonny); numerous great-nieces and -nephews; a host of other relatives; devoted friends, Butch, Sonny, "Blue," Bernadette and the entire Chase Street Gang.
