

Wilbert Harper

June 8, 1943 - January 9, 2004

Wilbert Harper, fondly known as “Hoppo,” son of the late Rosamae Jennings and Earl Slaughter, was born on June 8, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a lengthy illness, he suddenly departed this life on January 9, 2004 when the Lord called him home. He received his education in the public schools of Baltimore, Maryland. At an early age, Wilbert worked at Childs Express as a truck driver until he retired due to illness. He met and later married Annie Louise, known as Louise, with whom he shared many loving and faithful years. During this union he helped to raise seven stepchildren. Hoppo’s signature trademarks were his stylish hats and a classic toothpick. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn his death and cherish his memory: his loving wife, Louise; step-daughter, Merletha; six step-sons, Daniel, Alphonso, Larry, Benjamin, Michael and Grady; four step-daughters-in-law, Belinda, Evelyn, Sandra and Gloria; mother-in-law, Leter Taylor; four sisters-in-law, six brothers-in-law; brother, Kenneth Jennings; sister-in-law, Yolanda; twenty-one step-grandchildren, ten step-great-grandchildren; uncle, John Braxton; aunts, Flossie Raleigh; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends, including favorite cousin, Libby and three devoted friends, Lil Bro, Charles and Richard.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
