

Wilbert L. Terry

May 23, 1947 - January 20, 2009

Wilbert Lee Terry Jr., devoted son of the late Wilbert Lee Terry Sr. and the late Annie C. Evans, was born on May 23, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 20, 2009 after a lengthy illness. He was affectionately known to his family as "Pudnee". He received his education in the Baltimore City School System. He was united in marriage to his loving and devoted wife, Bernice Crockett in 1968. Out of this union his son, the late Wilbert Lee Terry III, was born. He worked for Maryland Septic Tank for over thirty years. Wilbert was a very strong willed, determined person who had a zest for life. He made numerous friends and will be missed by all those who knew him. Wilbert leaves to mourn; his wife, Bernice, grandchildren, Corey Terry, Tarea Terry and Dovantaes Terry; his brother, Melvin Terry and stepbrother, Major Evans; brothers-in-law, Walter Phillips and Thurston Crockett; sisters-in-law, Florence Phillips, Emma Crockett, Virginia Carson and Beatrice Terry, a host of aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I wish to extend my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals that our "enemy death" is to be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences to you all the Terry's. Lossing a dear love one breaks the circle of life for all. One thing is for sure that our heavenly father will always be there for you all and care so much for you all, 1 Peter 5:7. We are so living in the last days, 2 Tim.3:1-5, and in the near future the resurrection of the dead ones will be here, John 5:28. A joyful time in deed. I am looking forward to that and I know you all are too. I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
