

Wilbert L. Williams

June 13, 1928 - April 3, 2002

Wilbert L. Williams, son of the late Herbert W. and Cora Williams, was born on June 13, 1928 in Henderson, Texas on a small Cherokee Reservation. He departed this life on April 3, 2002. He received a twelfth grade education and immediately afterwards enlisted into the Army. He served in the Korean Conflict during his service in the Army as a Medical Technician. After serving over ten years in the Army, he received an honorable discharge. While in the service, he was stationed at Fort Holabird, where he continued to live after being discharged. He met and married Joanne Berrain, and out of this union there were four children and two stepchildren, Bernard, Cora, Dorothy, Wilbert, Juanita and Nathaniel. Known as Redds to all his friends, Wilbert made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn three sons, Bernard, Wilbert and Nathaniel; three daughters, Cora Dorothy and Juanita; ex-wife, Joanne Dotson; a very special friend, David Wells; seventeen grandchildren, three great-grandchildren; one brother-in-law, Kenny; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
