

Wilbur Amos

January 7, 1945 - April 10, 2013

WILBUR JOSEPH AMOS “JOE”, son of the late Alfred and Ella Mae Amos, was born on January 7, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. Joe was called home to be with His Heavenly Father on Wednesday, April 10, 2013 after a lengthy, hard fought battle with a terminal illness.

Wilbur was affectionately known as “Baby Joe”, “Little Joe” or just “Joe”. Joe received his education in the Baltimore County Public School System.

Joe worked several jobs. Two of them that stood out the most were American Bank Stationary and Office Depot. On both of these jobs, he received several awards each year for job performance and perfect attendance.

Joe enjoyed landscaping, which he acquired this experience from working at George Register Florist. Joe also loved to play baseball. Joe was the pitcher for all the teams he played on.

Joe made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend. Joe also loved to travel visiting his nieces and nephews throughout the country.

While Joe did not have any biological children, he was very instrumental in raising his nieces, nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews. From babysitting, teaching them how to drive, and how to play softball; to all day outings to Pimlico Race Course, just to name a few things.

Preceding him in death are: his loving brothers, Stephen and Andrew.

He leaves to mourn: three brothers, Alfred Jr. (Terry), Earl (Robin) and Alan (Jennifer); four sisters, Ellen (Herman), Ann (Ronald), Carolyn (Pilson) and Roxanna; one godson, Alexander; nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences go out to the family of Wilbur Amos. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ To the Amos family,
You all are in my prayers. I know that this is a difficult time for you all. Uncle Joe was a very special person to me. I am going to miss the big hugs I use to get from him every time we saw each other. To my Uncle Alan (and his siblings) I know you loved Uncle Joe and it hurts to not have him here anymore, but please remember that God loved him best and that is why He took him home to rest. Lean not to your own understanding.....trust God.
Love you,
Mookie

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
