

Wilbur K. Jones

May 23, 1933 - March 8, 2008

Wilbur K. Jones, son of the late Alvin and Gladys Jones, he was born on May 23, 1933 in Easton, Maryland. He departed this life on March 8, 2008 after a short illness. He was baptized a Christian at Asbury African Methodist Church in Easton, Maryland at a young age. Wilbur, along with the rest of the family, converted to Catholicism in 1948. Wilbur was educated in Parochial and Baltimore City Public Schools. He became employed by Korn's Furniture Store in Baltimore, Maryland as an upholsterer. At the age of 19, he was inducted in the United States Army and served from 1953-1954. After being honorably discharged, he worked as a florist apprentice, brick and stone mason, plumber, roofer, cook, and eventually started his own home improvement business. He maintained his business until his illness. There was no job too large or small. His legacy will live on through his many completed projects and satisfied customers. He married the former Barbara Dowry and had three stepchildren from this union, Donald, Janell and Angie. This marriage ended in divorce after several years. Wilbur loved to hear the old-time gospel songs on Sunday mornings and he didn't mind sharing them by turning the volume up so all could hear. He enjoyed watching baseball and football games on television and helped manage the game from his easy chair. Another favorite pastime was cooking and he was a master chef. He would speak his mind but made friends everywhere he went. He lived life to the fullest until his illness incapacitated him. He loved children and treated them all as if they were his own. He was the father or uncle figure that many did not have. If they needed something, Wilbur made certain they had it, even if he had to do without. He was a charter third degree member of the Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange Council and a fourth degree member of the Charles Carroll of Carroilton Assembly of the Knights of Columbia. He leaves to mourn; a devoted daughter, Sharron Jones-Elmore, daughter Jeanie Jones; one son, Kenneth Jones; two step-daughters, Janelle and Angie Dowry; one step-son, Donald Dowry, one son-in-law, Dameun Elmore; two granddaughters, Shaquandra White and I'yana Elmore, seven sisters, Mrs. Dorothy McCutcheon, Mrs. Virginia Fisher, Ms. Shirley Jones, Mrs. Gloria Gibson, Mrs. Patricia Heidelberg, Ms. Vincentia Jones and Ms. Ingrid Jones, seven brothers, Roosevelt Jones, Leon Jones, Vernon Jones, Sr.; nieces, nephews, one special friend, Doris Loving; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Wilbur K. Jones

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My condolences to the Jones Family. I pray Wilbur has now found peace and is no longer suffering. May his soul spend eternity with the Lord our God. Carla Sanders##imported-begin##Carla Sanders##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hi ! Jones! May I send fellow feeling to you all in your recent loss of Mr. Wilbur circle of life being broken. The many thoughts of others can help in so small way to easy the pain. Imagine the happines to be our when no one will ever die again as the bible say at Isa.25:8. We have a great Refuge in our creator, Ps.46:1-2. We can look forward to better times ahead as the bible promises.May all the 75 years of Mr. Wilbur accomplishment and cherished memories support you all in the years ahead.##imported-begin##lillian##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM