

Wilhelmina Brown

September 1, 1924 - December 14, 2003

Wilhelmina Brown was born on September 1, 1924 in Augusta, Georgia. She was one of six children born to the late Furley and Janie Brown. Wilhelmina came to Baltimore in 1937. She graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1945. Her marriage to Jesse Brown blessed her with two children, Lionel and Lynda Jayne. After Jesse's death, Wilhelmina married James Brown. From this forth-five year union she was blessed with her son, Mark. Family and education were the two greatest passions of Wilhelmina's life. After raising her children, she realized her lifelong dream of a college education. At the age of fifty-five she received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. She worked for three years as a board-certified social worker and began work on a Masters Degree in Psychology before she retired. Wilhelmina remained very active in her retirement. While a member of the Waxter Center for Senior Citizens, she published excerpts from her memoirs. Wilhelmina and James traveled the world. France, Monaco and the Canary Islands were among her favorite destinations. For many years she was a member of Unity United Methodist Church and St. Mark's United Methodist Church. As a member of the Unity Center of Christianity she traveled to the Unity Village in Missouri to renew her faith. Wilhelmina leaves to mourn: her husband, James; a daughter, Lynda Jayne; a son, Mark; grandsons, Kennard Matthews, III and Lawrence Everett, Jr.; a brother, David Brown; a nephew, David Brown Jr.; a niece, Lavina Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends. Wilhelmina will be remembered for great determination. She was often heard to say, "Where there's a will, there's not only a way, there's a Wilhelmina." She will be missed by all whose lives were touched by her kind, loving way. Lovingly submitted, The Family

“ To the family and friends, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
