

Willa Mae Cain

February 9, 1920 - August 23, 2004

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.” II Corinthians 5:4

On August 23, 2004 after a brief illness, God called our loved one home. Willa Mae Cain was born February 9, 1920 in Tillery, North Carolina to the late Henry and Annie Wynn. Her older sister Pattie Odell Dorsey preceded her in death. Willa Mae Cain, affectionately known as “Bugg,” “Bill,” “Mother,” Momma,” and “Granny,” was a phenomenal woman, who loved the Lord. Not only was she kind, loving and caring. And most of all she enjoyed living her life to the fullest. Willa Mae enjoyed vacationing in the Bahamas from 1968 through 1978 with her club members of the LES JOLLIE FEMMES SOCIAL CLUB. In addition to being Bahama Mama her second love was going to Atlantic City, Dover Downs or any other casino. Donald Trump was her guy (smile). Willa Mae also enjoyed hosting card games, and boy was she lucky! Aside from her fun Willa Mae was always concerned about the well being of others. It was evident in the way she lived her life. Although she was educated in the Baltimore City Public School system, she did not complete her studies until 1986 when her late husband John N. Cain crossed over to eternal life. After many years as a wife, mother and homemaker Willa Mae went on to obtain her G.E.D. and a certificate in Nutrition from the Community College of Baltimore, which led her to her new career as Site Manager of the Eating Together Program. At age seventy, she successfully completed the course requirements for Methods of Health for Senior Staff with a 3.0 GPA. Wow! Willa Mae was also awarded a prestigious Certification of Merit from the City of Baltimore from the Honorable Mayor Kurt L. Schmoke and after ten years of continuous service she was never tardy or absent. In addition, Willa Mae was awarded the Baltimore City Health Department Commissioner's Commendation for her contribution to the health and well being of the citizens of Baltimore. Now isn't that something. Willa Mae took great pride in her home. She loved to cook, clean, and tend to her garden. Her family was her first priority from her children to her great-great grandchildren. Not only did she raise her children; she went on to raise her grandchildren never leaving them to an outside babysitter. Willa Mae went from labor to reward and leaves to cherish her memory: five daughters, Gloria Evans, Carolyn McDonald, Jeanne Hawkins, Joan Cain, and Bettye, Blaize; one son, Roland Langley; five sons-in-law, Russell Evans, Carl McDonald, James Hawkins, Billy Brown, and Amos Goodlow (one preceded her in death, Reynold Blaize); one daughter-in-law, Sally Ghee; seventeen grandchildren, Karen, William, Sharon, Tonya, Adrienne, Ronald, Timothy, Andre', Jason, Royal, Malcolm, Jeannelle, John, Terrence, and Dawnita (three grandchildren preceded her in death, Victor, Bernadette, and Charlie); twenty-five great-grandchildren (one great preceded her in death), Leslie; eleven great-great grandchildren; two nephews, James and Glenn Dorsey; one niece, Edith Hinton; a loving Goddaughter, MiMi Berry of Virginia; one surviving club member and loving Godmother, Dorothy Butler; extended family on Northgate Road; a lifetime devoted friends, Earle Bollin (her pal)' and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Hello, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##sophia briscoe##imported-end##

“ Though during your time of grief it may not seem possible but there is always light at the end of every tunnel especially when someone dear has been separated from us due to death. Death in this present day is not something we want as a part of life's cycle. Our heavenly father Jehovah God wants you to know that. He wants all people to know he is aware of all our suffering and losses due to our enemy Satan and he will soon rectify because this is not the way he purpose life to be. 1John 4:8 lets us know God is Love so out of his love for us he made a provision that only the true and Almighty God can do. Jehovah have promise according to Rev 21:3,4 that death one day will be no more... the things that causes pain and mourning will be no more. As for those we have lost to death, John 5: 28, 29 states those in the memorial tombs will hear God's sons voice, Jesus Christ and will awaken from an eternal sleep that have been made a temporary state now due to the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. How wonderful the day when you will be able to enjoy your once lost loved one to death. Yes Jehovah promises us the gift of everlasting life according to Titus 1:2. The righteous ones will reside on earth forever as he informs us at Psalms 37:29 because that have always been his purpose since the beginning of mans creation again stated at Titus 1:2. You can have trust in this promised hope because Isaiah 55: 11 states of Jehovah his words will not return to him without results. Yes trust in God's word the bible because Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences during your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God "is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves." (Ps. 34:18) Isn't this a comforting thought? Please find comfort in the Bible's message.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Hello Cain Family May the God of comfort keep you all well. When our love one dies many ask is ther a hope for our love ones? The bible gave the best answer yes. A reunion with our loved ones is possible right here on earth. We can have real confidence of the promies made at Acts 24:15, Isa.33:24.I hope the few words have been of comfort to our all . Our Condolences. Lillian.##imported-begin##Lillian##imported-end##
