

Willa Mae Needam

April 10, 1945 - May 29, 2017

Willa Mae Needam also known as "Mama or Aunt Mommie", was born on April 10, 1945 in Philadelphia. She was the daughter of the late Janie Northan and Alonso Ellison. Willa Mae was the last of the three siblings. They preceded her in death, Timothy, William, and Delores. She was raised by her brother William and sister in law Minnie Northan. On May 29, 2017 she was called home to be with the Lord.

She received most of her education through Virginia Public Schools. She received many prestigious academic awards. On October 23, 1965, she married George Edward Needam and from this union they had three wonderful children; Gary, Fonda, and Angela. In 1970 she resided in Baltimore, Maryland and later attended and graduated from Baltimore Business School in 1978. In 1979-1980 she became employed with Montgomery Ward and later in domestic work for many years until a minor setback with some health issues. Her love was so immense that she cared deeply for many children throughout her life as her own, thus gaining a second son, Michael.

Willa Mae greatly took advantage of all that life had to offer, never taking life for granted. She had many interest and hobbies including reading, singing, sewing, and traveling. But there was one particular interest that would impact her life forever, in 1992 she gave her life to the Lord at Christian Memorial Church (CMC).
