

William Anderson

September 24, 1930 - November 7, 2005

On September 24, 1930, the late Harold and Carrie Anderson were blessed with a wonderful son... WILLIAM ANDERSON. God called him home on November 7, 2005. William received his education at Carver Vocational-Technical Senior High School in Baltimore. He became employed by the Belvedere Hotel on a part-time basis while he attended school. Upon completion of his education, he worked for a short period before serving two years in the United States Army. After serving in the army, he attended the Cortez Peters Business School for two years. He later met and married Jennie DeMontanac, and out of this union two children were born, William and Jay Anderson. William was a hardworking man. He worked for the Baltimore City Fire Department; the United States Post Office and he also owned Andy's Grocery Store with his brother and sister. William also worked for the Baltimore Gas and Electric Company for nineteen years. As a result of illness, he reluctantly retired in 1988. He was a special part of every life he touched and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was a devoted family man. Many of his nieces, nephews and grandchildren called him "Daddy". When he was younger, he liked to bowl. But in later years, he enjoyed listening to his jazz albums, watching movies from his extensive collection and driving his Cadillac. He leaves to celebrate his life: his wife, Jennie Anderson; one son, Jay Anderson (his other son William preceded him in death); one daughter, Devora Hart; two sisters, Helen Amerson and Irma Naylor (his brother Harold Anderson preceded him in death); two brothers-in-law, Herbert Naylor and Hubert DeMontanac; one daughter in-law, Takisha Anderson; a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews; a long-time friend, Carl Miles; and lastly his faithful companion, "Coach", the family dog.

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. At First Corinthians 15:26 we are told that death is our enemy and death will be destroyed in God's due time. The Bible gives us hope of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain under paradise conditions. (John 5:28-29, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) May you receive much comfort from these promises of the Bible in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family of William Anderson. In your time of mourning, there's a message of comfort found at Rev. 21:4, "And God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, & death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have past away."##imported-begin##Debbie Spann##imported-end##

“ To Jay and the family of our friend "Mr. Bill", we extend our deepest sympathy. A true gentleman, Mr. Bill owned the store we all visited at Caroline and Federal Sts. years ago. He, Mr. Mannie and Jay were just like family to the entire block. We will miss him but we must take comfort in knowing that God never makes mistakes. Heaven is more beautiful with his presence now there. May he rest in peace. God bless you all.##imported-begin##Jovita Harris-Okonkwo##imported-end##

“ My family and I offer you our sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. During times like this we have always been able to find comfort from, "The Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation..." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. May you and your family find comfort and strength from Him as well.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ just a word of comfort due to the death of your loved one. Revelation 21:3,4 gives us the hope of a time when there will be no more sickness or death. John 5:28,29 gives us the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. Tjhe Bible also shows that the time will come when the earth will be a paradise with no more crime or violence and also a time when no one will be sick or hungry or homeless. please feel free to contact me at me e-mail address if you would like to learn more about the wonderful promises set out in God's word, the Bible##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello! Anderson's ! May you all be having peace of mind and body.Losing a dear one like Mr.William broke the circle of life. It has been a year since Mr.William died. The bible say that death will be swallow up forever at Isa.25:8, great NEW to hear. Imagine the happiness that will result when our dear loved ones are resurrested. I am looking forward to that happing in the near future. May all the happy times shared and enjoyed with Mr. William help in life jouurney ahead. Sincerely, L.CROSBY.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
