“ To the Family and Friends. I am so sorry to hear about the death of William. The Bible gives the loving hope of our loved ones returning to life. Acts 24:15 informs us "There is going to be a resurrection." When that time occurs the earth will be a trouble-free paradise with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Isaiah 65:17 and 2 Peter 3:13). May you be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##M. Rasaki##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family for the loss of Mr Baker. It's so unfair for families and friends to have to see their loved ones die. We miss them so much. I want you to know though that Jehovah God has something much better in store for us. He promises a new paradise earth where sickness and death will be no more. Death has been a terrible enemy to us for so long, but 1st Cor 15:26 lets us know that this enemy, death, will soon be brought to nothing." One day, through the love of God, our loved ones will return to us again with everlasting life in view, providing we have the faith in God's son, and are obedient to Jehovah, the king of eternity. Remember these wonderful scriptures whenever you are feeling down. Isaiah 25:8 which says: "And he will swallow up death forever, and Isaiah 65:17 which makes this wonderful promise; "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind; neither will they come up into the heart." So one day we won't even remember the heartache we went through in this life. May those wonderful promises from God comfort and strengthen you to carry on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
