

William W. Bean Jr.

June 27, 1945 - February 19, 2011

William Ward Bean, Jr. affectionately known as ' Pople “ departed this life peacefully on February 19, 2011. Pople was born on June 29, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland to Dorothy Bean and the late William Bean, Sr.,

Pople was Educated in the Baltimore city Public Schools, attended Samuel Gompers High School. From two former marriages, five children were born .Pople was a very outgoing person, well known in the East Baltimore community, and had many friends. Growing up, most guys in the neighborhood knew to stay away from his six sister, he was very protective of them.

Pople enjoyed physical labor; which lead to a career as a professional mover, He worked for many years with B. Green Moving Company and the Mayflower Moving Company. Working as a mover allowed Pople to travel across the country, relocating many families and making even more friends. Everyone who knew Pople , knew his favorite past time was eating. Whether on the road, or at home Pople enjoyed a “Big” meal.

Pople was also very proud of the accomplishments of his children. The most important person in his life, however, was his mom. Pople and his mom shared a very special relationship. Pople knew no matter what happened in life, his mom was always there for him. There's nothing like a mother's love.

Pople leaves to mourn, children William, III, Angela, Michael, Derek and Bryant; nine grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, loving Mother, Dorothy Bean, Brother Gregory and James (deceased), sister Cynthia Carter, Patricia Jones(deceased), Denise Bean, Karen Bean Baxter, Sharon Bean and Cheryl Welch, Brother-in-law, Clayton Welch. He is also survived by a host of aunt, uncles, cousins, nieces,nephews and other relatives and friends.
