

William Booker

March 22, 1921 - October 29, 2001

In October 2001, the angel of death rode by and changed William Booker's unknown residence to an eternal home in the sky. We do not always understand why things happen as they do, but we know that God is all wise and never makes an error and His plan for life is true. We now know that William Booker (Daddy) has a permanent home with the Lord. William Booker was born on March 22, 1921 in Spartanburg, South Carolina to Pearl and Joseph Booker. He departed this life on October 29, 2001. He was educated in the Spartanburg County Public School System. He was joined in holy matrimony to Louise Anderson of Spartanburg, S.C. on November 16, 1940. He relocated his family to Baltimore, Maryland in 1953. The Baltimore Gas and Electric Company employed him for thirty years, retiring in 1983. Being a workaholic, he never stopped working completely. He worked part-time until his health began to fail. He was a member of the Simmons Memorial Baptist Church for forty-three years. He knew the Lord and was a very kind and giving man. He was always willing to give his last dime to help his fellow man. He will be mostly remembered for the jokes he constantly told to put a smile on your face or a burst of laughter from within. He leaves to cherish his memory: five children, Artis and Billy Booker of Baltimore, Md., Carolyn Whitehorn of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Bernice Berry and Naomi Millner of Baltimore, Md; eleven grandchildren, Kim, Yolanda, Dawn, William Jr., Robert, James Jr., Erick, Artis Jr., Sean Keisha; sixteen great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.
