“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ I would like to give my condolences to your family at this time of your loss...I'm sharing just a few scriptures that helped me at the time of my loss.... God hates death and he view it as a enemy as 1Corinthians 15:26 brings out..... but he promises to bring them back in the near future as Acts 24:15 & John 5:28,29 brings out....my prayers are with your family at this time.

“ Uncle Billy words can not say how I feel. Times in life we take so many things for granted and feel like I should've, could've or would've. I know that you are with Marlon after so long missing him. Thanks for all the great memories and love you showed to me. I will always look over my shoulder because I know that I have you added to my angel list. Until we see each other again. With Love Tammy .

Uncle Billy you will be truly missed. We are so glad you shared your last Thanksgiving dinner at our home. With our Love Roer, Tamara, Kyra & Zipporah

P.S.....Glad to see that Dallas Cowboy blanket behind you, I told you to come over to the Star.

“ To the Family of William Brady:
I wanted to share some news to bring comfort to you since losing your loved one in death. The bible says at Isaiah 25:8 that 'God will swallow up death forever'. What a comforting thought. The bible tells us too at Revelation 21:4 that 'there will be no more sickness, death or pain'. So we look forward to the time when we will never have to lose our loved ones again. Acts 24:15 says 'there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous.' So we have so many things to look forward too. I do hope these scriptures have been an encouragement to you. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.
