

William Lee Brown

January 1, 1933 - June 21, 2014

On January 1st 1933, Mr. Louis & Eula Jane Brown began their New Year's with a healthy baby boy name, "William Lee" in Baltimore City.

William was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He went on to work as a cab driver for Diamond Cab for many years. Then began to work fulltime, in his passion carpentry and home improvement. He is responsible for renovations of many Baltimore City properties. He loved his craft and taught others around him a valuable trade.

Upon retirement he spent countless hours at the flea market, yard sales and dollar stores. The lights of life were his grandson Joseph and his great grandchildren. They gave him great joy in life especially in his darkest hours. Popeye the name his grandchildren blessed him with over 34 years ago, will be greatly missed in our lives

William "Popeye" fought a mighty battle with colon cancer for the past two years. He always said "I may have cancer but cancer doesn't have me". Regrettably, he slipped away from us quietly at the home of grandson Joseph and with granddaughter Keyoone by his side. We take great solace that he passed away at home in his bed with a loved on by his side.

He leved to mourn his loss: daughter Sonya (Gino) Odum of Hanover, MD and Stepson Johnnie (Donna) Barnes of Randallstown, MD. He predeceased in death by his daughter Lynette Brown, Stepdaughters Rhonda and Cynthia Barnes. His loving and devoted companion of 39 years Catherine Barnes (predeceased him in death). Brother Larry (Laverne) Brown of Baltimore, Md. And sister Ruth Brown of Baltimore, Md. He was also predeceased in death by his three brothers; John, James and Robert and sisters: Ellen, Mae and Rosalee. 10 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ I remember the good times we had on class trips. Billy Boy would usually show for you Sonja and my Mom would show for me. Those were special days for me. I was really sad to hear that he passed away.
