

William E. Brown

October 7, 1954 - March 24, 2018

William Edward Brown, son of the late Hilda Mae Brown and William E. Brown was born on October 4, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on March 24, 2018 to join his brother, Robert Brown and his beloved son, David Elijah Washington.

William received his education in the Baltimore City public schools.

He was known to many from East to West as, “Pork Chop, Junie, Pops and Mush Mouth” to his loving grandchildren. At any time you could call on him and count on him being there.

William worked as a Master Cook at Center Club, sang in a group, loved the Baltimore Ravens and was passionate about his “Pooh Bear” Carol, his family and friends. His favorite song was Lil Boosie, “Can’t Hold It In No More”, because he really was tired of holding all his pain in from his illness.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Carol Wiggins-Brown; grandchildren, David Washington, Jr., Jaden Washington, Heaven Washington, and Daniel Whiting; sister, Valerie Brown; daughter-in-law, Danyell Wilson; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and other family and friends.
