

William R. Brown

June 20, 1935 - December 23, 2018

William Russell Brown was born on June 20, 1935 to the late Ruth Collin and James Brown, and stepson of the late George Wilson. Russell or Judge as he was known went from labor to reward on Sunday December 23, 2018.

Russell was educated in the Baltimore City School System. Russell enlisted in the United States Air Force after he graduated from school. Russell was baptized at an early age in the Roman Catholic Church. Russell's marriage to Sue Clay ended in divorce.

During his life time he held various positions at Bethlehem Steel, the U.S. Post Office, and the U.S. Coast Guard. He served as a Justice of the Peace. He served on the Selective Service Board. He was appointed Commissioner at the War Memorial Building. Russell did consulting work for several attorneys. Russell was a member of the American Legion Post 285. Russell helped people obtain employment in local, state, and federal government. Russell loved to entertain family and friends on holidays, and he was a good cook. He took great pride to take care of his family especially Tyrone and Eddie.

Russell leaves to cherish his memories two sisters, Joyce Walls, Karen Taliaferro, one brother-in-law William Taliaferro, four nephews Walter Wilson, Gregory Walls, Tyrone Walls and Edward Taliaferro Sr., two nieces Linda Wilson and Erika Taliaferro, a host of great and great-great nephews and nieces, cousins, friends, and god children.

“ To the Brown Family. I am sorry for your loss and know William will be missed by family and friends. I hope this scripture bring some comfort at this time. ONLY those who have had someone dear to them taken away by death can know the frightful emptiness, the terrible sense of loss, the heartbreaking sorrow that death leaves behind by its unwelcomed visit. Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever,+ And the Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces.+*
