“ To the Family and Friends , I would like to express my deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. At a time like this, the pain and sorrow that is felt cannot be explained. The hurt feels like it will never go away. We have all lost a loved one and a few comforting words mean a lot to us. I hope you can find comfort from these words found in God's word the Bible. At Rev.21:3,4, Jehovah assures us this: "God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death ill be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. What a wonderful hope we have and all we have to do is to follow what John 17:3 says. "This means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of you, the only true God, and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ". One day in the near future, we will see our loved ones again.

“ Dear Family and Friends,

It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God’s Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God’s purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.

Sincerely,

“ To the family of William S. Bush,

I want to express my deepest condolences to you all at this time. Just like you I have experienced the pain of losing a loved one in death. It is a very intense and emotional situation to go through. However, rest assure Mr. Bush is no longer living in pain and no longer has to contend with the injustices and wickedness of this present system of things. That fact should really cause us much joy and satisfaction. But Jehovah God also helps us to draw strength at this time through his Word. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 we read, " As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." There will come a time when death will be a thing of the past. In Jehovah's new system of paradisiac conditions we will experience this marvelous hope. So, take comfort in that and do all that you can now so you can see your dear loved one again. Your family is definitely in my prayers.

“ We share with you the sorrow and loss of William Stanley Bush. Bill was a much loved and respected former co-worker and dear friend of 40 years. We all had a passion for music, theater, and a vigorous advocacy for social and racial justice.. Good memories of years gone by. No Christmas would be complete without our annual update and exchange of Holiday greetings. Such a good man! He will be missed.
