

William C. Jones

May 7, 1925 - December 3, 2003

William Coy Jones, son of the late Coy and Emma Jones, was born on May 7, 1925 in Person County, North Carolina. He departed this life on December 3, 2003 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at public schools in South Boston, Virginia. He was a full-time employee of Blue Ribbon Ice Cream Company until he was drafted into the Army, where he served for three years. He joined the First Baptist Church of South Boston, Virginia at an early age. After being discharged from the Army, he relocated to Washington, D.C. There, he remained until his illness. He made friends wherever he went. He was always devoted to his family. He will be missed by all that knew him. In February 1999, he was transferred to Ravenwood Nursing Home in Baltimore, Maryland. There he remained until God called him home. He leaves to mourn: three sisters, Mrs. Mary E. Allen of Baltimore, Maryland, Mrs. Lucretia Green of Danville, Virginia and Ms. Marion Jones of South Boston, Virginia; eight nieces, seven nephews, fourteen great-nieces, eleven great-nephews, a host of relatives and friends including two special friends, Mrs. Mary McNeal and Mrs. Emma Watts, both of Washington, D.C.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
