

William C. Mack (Chucky)

July 10, 1970 - May 31, 2004

William C. Mack, Jr. (Chucky), the son of Patricia Abrams Mack and the late William C. Mack, Sr., was born on July 10, 1970 in Baltimore, Maryland. Chucky suffered from diabetes, hypertension and asthma. He departed this life suddenly on May 31, 2004 after a brief hospital stay. William graduated from Northwestern High School in the class of 1988. He was employed by the Baltimore City Public School System since 1995 where he worked faithfully in the Department of Facilities. At the time of his death, Chucky was a custodian at Patterson High School. All who knew “Big” Chucky loved him! He was a gentle giant who was devoted to his mother and brother. This closely-knit family loved to travel and especially loved Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida where they spent many summers vacationing. Chucky was revered by his many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. They all loved to listen to Chucky’s stories, anecdotes and gentle ribbing of friends and family. No one could tell a story and make you laugh like Chucky! As a child, Chucky attended Provident Inspirational Baptist Church where he sang in the Children’s Choir and attended Sunday school. Chucky leaves to mourn and celebrate his short life; Patricia Ann Mack, his mother and Devon Mack, his devoted brother; aunts, Gloria Christian, Alice Thomas, Laretta Walden, Roberta Abrams, and Vera Newton; uncles, Edward Mack, Gerald Abrams, Donald Abrams, Aaron Abrams and James N. Newton. He also leaves twenty cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hi big brother, mommy is not here with me she passed away July 18, 2022, mommy cancer came back and took over her body. I am really going through. I can't believe all three of you are gone. I am missing all of you. It's really lonely down here by myself. I am really depressed, some days I just sit and cry. I am trying to be strong but I can't. I haven't been around the family, because it's seems I don't fit in. Everyone has there siblings and kids, it's just me. I am in a relationship, her is Bethany, she is patient with me. I did go to Las Vegas twice, the first time I went by myself the second time I went with Bethany. I do anything to have you and mommy back, I know we all have to leave one day, I wasn't ready at all to lost neither one of you, we had some much more to do, but needed you both

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures as I have been.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family of "Chucky", please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. I knew that his photo looked familiar and realized we went to Northwestern High together. I never got to know him personally but I did see him in the hallways at school. No doubt this enemy, death has no boundaries. It takes the very young, the very old and those in the prime of their lives. The "sting" it brings with it makes life unbearable and leaves voids too great to be filled. At difficult times like this and throughout the years to come we need comfort. Though it may seem to get better it never goes away. The one thing that can erase the pain and void of losing that person is to have that person back home with us. Our Loving Father and Creator promises just that. At Isaiah 26:19 it says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents of the dust!" So we can be assured that soon we will welcome back home our family and friends that death has taken from us.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ To lose A loved one is hard, but we can take heed to the verse found at Isaiah 25, where it says,"He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces,And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth,for Jehovah Himself has spoken { it }.We can believe this for we know that whatever God says is true.##imported-begin##Bertha Bell##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ although chucky died in 2004 for those of us who have lost our loved ones we know that it wounds a part of our hearts that causes us a sadness that we never quite completely forget. the bible though gives us a hope beyond compare of the healing the Jehovah will give to those who learn and obey His ways. some of these things are - a resurrection of our dead loved ones, not to an earth full of wickedness and crime, but to a paradise earth full of persons who practice reighteousness in their lives, an earth where there will be no more sickness or death, no more tears of sadness. so, considering that we can be rewarded for our efforts in this way, should it not move us to want to learn of God's requirements now and obey them. here are just a few verses from the bible to show that this is possible and if after reading these you decide that you would like to learn more - please contact me at my e-mail address - kic2@verizon.net - Rev.21:3,4, John5:28,29, Ps.37:9-11,29, Jeremiah10:23,Ps.83:18, Proverbs3:5,6###imported-begin##kathy commander###imported-end##

“ Iam so sorry about your loss so would like to share a scripture that is found at Revalation 21:4and it reads : " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry or pain be anymore the former things have passed away." So if i may i would like to ask you a question.Do you think that God purpoed us to die? For a comforting answer please contact your local Jehovah's Witnesses###imported-begin##Spencer Dancy###imported-end##

“ I would like to express the Bible's hope for the future. At John 5:28,29, Jesus spoke about the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, the Bible speaks about a resurrection of the dead. If you have any questions regarding this message, please contact me via e-mail.
