“ I have been through the valley of weeping, The valley of sorrow and pain;But the "God of all comfort" was with me, At hand to uphold and sustain. As we travel through life's shadowed valley, Fresh springs of His love ever rise; And we learn that our sorrows and losses may come, but our God shall deliver us out of them all. So we'll follow wherever He leadeth, Though pathways be dreary or bright;For we've proof that our God can give comfort, Our God can give songs in the night.##imported-begin##Pat McCray##imported-end##

“ Dear family of Bill, please accept my heartfelt condolences. I knew Bill from the years I worked at MTA. He was a fine man. May you find much comfort in the sure hope of the ressurection, because Jesus gave his life so that we might live eternally. John 5:28,29 Take comfort in the fact that one day Bill will open his eyes again in eternal peace, and if we put faith in the ransom sacrifice of Jesus, and obey the father, Jehovh, then we will see him again, and all of our loved ones who have died. May the loving kindness of Jehovah God, and his son, Christ Jesus continue to be with you all in your sorrow.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly informs us that death is our enemy, that same verse reveals: "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death". Also, Job 14:7,14,15 lovingly states: "For there exists hope for even a tree. It it gets cut down, it will even sprout again...If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?...I shall wait until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
