

William Charles Hamilton

May 1, 1930 - January 18, 2008

William C. Hamilton Sr. was born on May 1, 1930 in Charlotte, South Carolina. William departed this life on January 18, 2008 after a brief illness. William received his education through the schools of Eastern Shore, Maryland. He held various jobs. In 1949 he was employed with the Public Service Authority of South Carolina. He enlisted in the United States Army from 1950 through 1963. He then re-enlisted from 1963 through 1965 after which he received an honorable discharge. He also was employed at Forrest Haven Children's Center where he met his loving wife Martha. He was employed with the United States Post Office for thirty years until he retired on June 30, 1986. William was a caring and loving person who truly loved his family. Although he did not have many friends, he could have just met you and would carry on a lengthy conversation. Whatever obstacles he endured in his life he was able to persevere. William married Mabel M. Williams in 1956, and from this union two children were born, William, and Vondel. William married his loving wife Martha N. Mack in 1975, and this union lasted until he departed this life. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Martha Hamilton; his son, William Hamilton Jr.; his daughter, Vondel Hamilton; three grandchildren, Aisha Hamilton, Jarmar Hamilton and Kenneth Christian, one great-grandson, Keith Lawson, daughter-in-law, Beverly Lewis; stepdaughter, Alice Mason, stepgreat-granddaughter, Pausena Grady and her husband Robert Robert Grady; and step great-great-granddaughter, Makayla Grady.
