

William Charles Wooldridge

November 20, 1929 - October 4, 2009

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven. Ecclesiastes 3:1 William Charles Wooldridge, Sr., 79, of Richmond, Virginia entered into this world November 20, 1929 to Leola and William Thomas Wooldridge. He was called home to be with the Lord October 4, 2009. He was preceded in death by his wife, Gladys E. Wooldridge; son, William Charles Wooldridge Jr.; and granddaughter, Dr. Tanya Wooldridge. He was educated in Richmond, Virginia in the Richmond Public School System. He was affectionately known as "Pop" and "WC" by his family and friends. William was formerly employed by Greater Richmond Transit Company as a supervisor for many years, where he retired. He loved to live life to the fullest. William enjoyed antique cars and cooking for his family and friends. He was a very intelligent, outgoing, caring, generous, humorous, and a wonderful family man that loved his family. He was a member of Mt. Tabor Baptist Church. William's thirst for the Lord never died because he always had Him in his heart. Our beloved William leaves to cherish his loving memory four daughters, Alice N., Carol M., Ivory D. Wooldridge, Gladys Lightner (Leroy) and devoted daughter, Carol Wooldridge; four sons, Thomas L. (Crystal), Carl M., Eugene D. Wooldridge and John Walker; 14 grandchildren, one devoted Sidney Lightner; 15 great-grandchildren; brother, William T. Wooldridge Jr.; his caregivers, Lisa Smith, and Denise Jones; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends. He'll be truly missed and never forgotten.

Tribute Wall

“ William Charles Wooldridge

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM