“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl. 3:11). The Bible, however, promise at John 5:28-29 that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out by means of a resurrection. May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares that "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the author of it- Jehovah God and his loving son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get used to because it is not natural, in fact God's word at 1Corinthians 15:26 states that death is our 'enemy'. What a wonderful day it will be when Jehovah God by means of his son Christ Jesus brings our enemy to nothing!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
