

William Cornelius Young

April 30, 1943 - January 4, 2009

William Cornelius Young Sr. was born on April 30, 1943 to Robert Young Sr. and the late Christie Alice Conway Young. He departed this life on Sunday, January 4, 2009. Billy, as he was affectionately known, was educated in Baltimore City schools, where he graduated from Baltimore City College High School in 1961. He served four years in the Air Force, where he received an honorable discharge. He met and soon after married Shelia B. Smith, who preceded him in death. From this union, there were three children. In 1969, Billy began his career with the Baltimore Gas & Electric Company. He retired after thirty-two years of service. Billy had a heart of gold. Everyone he met was a "friend." He was more than generous and welcomed any and all who came into his presence. To know him was to love him. Billy loved traveling with his sister, Evelyn. He especially loved his annual trips to Las Vegas where he spent time with his brothers and sisters. He enjoyed cooking, socializing and drinking beer. He loved watching football (shout out to the Pittsburgh Steelers). He looked forward to going to lunch monthly with the "Cronies." What he loved most was spending time with his family. He leaves to mourn: his father, Robert Young Sr.; three children, Michelle Mitchell of Virginia, William Jr. of Virginia, and Monica Lewis; five siblings, Ann Scott, Etta Vivian of Iowa, Robert Young Jr., Michael Young Sr. of Pennsylvania, and Evelyn Young; two sons-in-law, Robert Mitchell and Keith Lewis; one daughter-in-law, Veronica Young; six grandchildren, Monique, Lakira, Ashton, Ashley, Kyle, and Shelby; two great-grandchildren, Tashani and Tionna; three brothers-in-law, Linwood Smith, Sheldon Smith, and Sterling Vivian; four sisters-in-law, Nattiel Cooper, Deborah T. Smith, Phyllis Smith, and Beverly Young; one aunt, Blanche Conway; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many, many good friends.

“ Know that we are praying for you constantly. For strength, for peace and for comfort during the loss of a loving father, devoted husband, and special brother. I hold special memories of his upbeat personality, one-of-a-kind sense of humor and willingness to always make others laugh. He will be missed by many.##imported-begin##Melanee Bryant & Family##imported-end##

“ Do not stand at my grave and forever weep. I am not there; I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn's rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and forever cry. I am not there. I did not die. We are so very sorry for your loss. When we think of Billy this poem comes to mind. Not sure of the author, but it seems so very appropriate.##imported-begin##Doug and Sadie Parker##imported-end##
