

William Curtis Jr.

April 14, 1931 - July 9, 2014

WILLIAM CURTIS, JR., affectionately known to all as Buster, was born April 14, 1931 to the late William Sr. and Gertrude Curtis in Baltimore, Maryland. After a lengthy illness, he was called home to be with the Lord.

Buster received his education from the Baltimore City Public School System.

After many years of service as a Baltimore City Employee he retired. He also served in the United States Army.

Buster later met and married the love of his life, the late Louise Curtis and they were united for twenty-five years.

He leaves behind to share his memories: son, Keith Whitworth (Sheldon Whitworth preceded him in death); daughter, Gwen Short; daughter-in-law, Pamela George; devoted niece and nephew, Reba Dyson and Anthony Curtis; three stepsons, Ulysses, William and Nathaniel Ely; sisters-in-law, Jeanette Rice, Cartilla Holbert and Shirley Eldridge; brother-in-law, Alvin Eldridge; twelve grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and great-great-grand nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *Dear Family,
I am very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one..
Please take comfort in what the Bible states: “As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.” (1 Corinthians 15:26) Never again will grief-stricken people have to go to a cemetery to bury a loved one. The Bible says: “Death will be no more.” (Revelation 21:4) Do you not agree that the Bible’s viewpoint on what happens at death is a comforting one? And he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. God cares about you and your loved one and gives us hope of these promises mentioned in His Word the Bible.*

“ My condolences to the Family. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God assures us that our dear dead loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 65:21,22) The Bible also promises: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible plainly states: "It is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)
