

William E. Dabbs Sr.

January 9, 1939 - March 25, 2019

William "Bill" Edwards Dabbs, son of the late George and Mildred Dabbs, was born on January 9, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on March 25, 2019 after a lengthy illness.

Bill received his education at Carver Technical High School. In later years, he received his HVAC certification and was well known for his ability to identify an issue right away. Bill also spent a short time in the United States Army. He began his Christian walk at an early age and frequently had Bible study with friend and family.

Bill was a talented illustrator in a number of media forms both painting and drawing...Tad of sculpture too. He really enjoyed video games, especially Super Metroid on Super NES. One of the few people we knew to get 100%. He was doing game achievements before they were on Xbox.

He married the former Peggy Jenkins in 1986 and they were married 33 years when he was called home.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents, George and Mildred Dabbs, by his sister "Sweet Pea", the late Pamela Anderson, the late Consuela Gross, and the late Mildred Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Peggy A. Dabbs, daughter, Deborah Holland, son, William Dabbs, Jr.; his children by marriage, Mia Marshall, Walter Carter III, Marcus Carter and Tyrone Wilford; brother, George Dabbs, sister, Vera Dabbs, sister, Josephine Trent, and special thanks to nephew, Clyde Jenkins. He also leaves to mourn sixteen grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
