

William Douglas Hardy

April 20, 1930 - April 16, 2006

WILLIAM DOUGLAS HARDY, affectionately known as "Bill" and "Mr. Hardy," departed this life on April 16, 2006, after a lengthy illness. He was loved and raised by William A. Hardy and Gertrude Edmond until their demise. He attended grade school and high school in Kenbridge, Virginia. Shortly thereafter, he enlisted in the U. S. Army where he served in the Korean War. He met and married Maxine R. Blackwell and moved to Baltimore, Maryland. From their union, they had four children: daughters, Valerie Mathews and Wanda Hardy and sons, Hammett Hardy and Kevin Hardy. William worked and retired as a heavy equipment operator for the Grounds Division for the Baltimore City Public School System. In Williams' religious life, he studied the Jehovah's Witness faith. He leaves to mourn: his first wife, Maxine R. Hardy; two daughters, Valerie Mathews and Wanda Hardy; three sons, Hammett Hardy, Kevin Hardy and Otis Webb; one son-in-law, Clayton Mathews; two daughters-in-law, Sandra Hardy and Sharon Hardy. He also leaves to mourn: his second wife, Shirley Jackson-Hardy; six stepchildren, Earl, Eric, Kevin, Darren, Demond and Tanya; ten grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. Last, but not least, his beloved dog, Peebles.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences on the loss of your loved one. May you take comfort in Jehovah God's promise at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."###imported-begin###D. Spann###imported-end###

“ To the family of Mr. Hardy, I as so sorry for your loss. It's so unfair that our loved ones have to depart. It touches us more deeply than any other thing we experience in this life. Almighty God himself feels our pain, and he promises that soon he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. Rev.21,3,4 I hope this scripture comforts you through your grief as well as your wonderful memories. Soon our loved ones will dbе brought back to life in paradise conditions, and our enemy death will be gone forever.###imported-begin###R Johnaonr###imported-end###
