“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that death really is our enemy and one day God will destroy death. There is hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us that there is going to be a resurrection. At that time there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:4) May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises of the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Daniel, I offer my most sincere condolences on your loss, Death is something we can never get used to, no matter how many loved ones we lose. It is truly a tragedy we can never come to grips with. God in his infinite love for us, purposes to erase this pain from our hearts forever in the near future. Bible prophesy points to our day as the time period when Jehovah will act to fullfill hils purpose to have obedient mankind live forever in a restored paradise earth in peace and happiness. All sorrow and tears will be washed away when we see our dead loved ones come back to life in the promised ressurection. Daniel 12:2 tells us that there will be many of those asleep in the dust who will wake up." May you find comfort in his word to help you to cope with your grief, and give you a joyous hope to look forward to.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
