

William E. Elliott

October 3, 1937 - January 19, 2003

William Edward Elliott, son of the late William Elliott and Inez Taylor, was born on October 3, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 19, 2003 after a lengthy illness. William received his education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore. Upon completion of his education, he fulfilled many different occupations. He was a worker at Bethlehem Steel, a taxi cab driver and a Baltimore City police officer. He finally settled into his job as a mechanic for the city of Baltimore where he advanced to supervisor until his retirement on September 3, 1999. In 1956, William was confirmed at St. Phillips Lutheran Church. William married the former Sonya Jenkins in August 1956, and out of this union two children were born, Michael and Melvin. On August 1, 1985, he married the former Elvira Counts. Bill or Willie, as he was known, was well loved and respected. He made numerous friends wherever he went. He loved children and children loved him. A boisterous and fun-loving man, Bill will be sincerely missed by everyone that knew him. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Elvira Elliott; two sons, Michael and Melvin Elliott; two stepchildren, Craig and Dana Counts; mother, Inez Taylor; one brother, Duane; one sister, Brenda White; five grandsons, Daysawn and Matthew Elliott, James Holliday, Michael Gambrill, Dimitrus Burton; one great grandson, Gary Walker; six granddaughters, Michelle, Tamara, Mariah, Rachel Elliott, Nicole Noble, Adrian Holliday; three brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law; two devoted friends, Edward Rice and Henry French; nephews, nieces a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ William E. Elliott

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ William E. Elliott

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM