

William E. Ferebee

September 24, 1976 - July 21, 2004

WILLIAM E. FEREBEE JR., affectionately known as Ferby, son of Barbara Butler and William E. Ferebee Sr., was born on September 24, 1976 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life of July 21, 2004. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. He attended Francis Elwood where he learned the trade of painting and cooking. He was a friend to all who knew him and was very generous with his time. Along with his passion for children and family, was an interest in cooking and an enthusiasm for all sports. Ferby always wanted to have a career of working with children and being their mentor. Ferby, known by family as Poop, disliked that name when in the company of his friends. He would tell his mother, "Please don't call me that in public." He dedicated his love and affection to Tia and their son Little Ferby. They were truly the love of his life. Ferby was preceded in death by his loving sister, Mee-Mee. He was a typical over-protective big brother to her. He was also a true big brother to his brother Tim and his sister Timmya. He loved and cherished his stepfather, Mr. Tim, knowing he could count on him. William was preceded in death by his sister, Tamika S. Ferebee. He will be sadly missed by: his mother, Barbara Butler; father, William E. Ferebee Sr.; son, William E. Ferebee III; his true love Shatia Barksdale; brother, Timothy Butler II; sisters, Timmya Butler and Sheena Ferebee; three grandmothers, Susan Perrin, Peggy Ferebee and Bessie Butler; grandfather, Raymond Ferebee Sr.; special niece, Cashmia Barksdale and Maniya Butler; nephew, Dermonta Makell; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ Although I do not know the family of Mr. Ferebee Jr., I still send my deepest sympathy. From what I read, he seemed to be a person that loved all, and all loved him. When a close loved one dies, some tend to have discomfort towards the future. However, at John 5:28,29 it speaks of "a resurrection in which all in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and get up." So, again I extend my condolences to the family.###imported-begin##Brittany###imported-end##

“ Dear Family, please accept my condolences for your loss. Though strangers, we all share the same pain of losing someone we so dearly love. Soon, this enemy, death will not exist. According to God's word at Isaiah 25:8 He promises to "swallow up death forever." No more will we have to mourn and suffer; how comforting to know. Please continue to look to the bible for comfort now and until this promise is fulfilled.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincerest condolences. I know your loss must be very painful. During this difficult time, the Bible can be very helpful. Almighty God has a hope for your dear loved one and your family. John 5:28, 29 promises, "...all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Continue to draw strength from each other and the scriptures.##imported-begin##Nicholson##imported-end##
