“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ *Whit and I extend our deepest sympathy to Jerry and his family. Jerry has shown his love and support to his Dad during his recent illness. We know the love and gratitude that Rev. Lambirth felt for Jerry and how deeply Jerry loved his father. He will be forever missed. We know that God has granted him everlasting peace. “ *My great-uncle William has passed on from this world. He called me Chink. I remember the guppies, and the warm, friendly, disciplined man I never got to know as an adult. I will forever remember the 50 cent pieces he would occasionally flip and give to me, Charvette, Denny and Jonnelle. I will always remember my grandfathers dear brother. He had a humble and humbling, beautiful soul. My mother had discussed visiting him in Pennsylvania, but now I must content myself with revisiting the wonderful memories and remembering that he loved the good Lord, and his family and so do I.##imported-begin##John C.
