

William E. Moody

July 5, 1930 - February 3, 2003

William Eugene (Outlaw) Moody, Sr., son of the late Agnes and William T. Moody, was born July 5, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed his life peacefully at 4:30 a.m. on Monday, February 3, 2003 after a lengthy illness. Eugene (Outlaw) was the youngest of seven children. He is preceded in death by four sisters; Edith, Rita, Catherine and Harriette and one brother Alfred. As a child, Eugene (Outlaw) was reared in a loving and caring religious home. Before his illness, he attended Saint Bernadine's Catholic Church. He received his education at Saint Pius Catholic School and Saint Francis Academy in Baltimore, Maryland. He later received a AA in Psychology at Antioch Community College and his BA in Business Administration at Howard University. Eugene (Outlaw) and Maisie (Horsey) Moody were joined in marriage on June 17, 1949. Out of that union three children were born. On March 26, 1992 a marriage took place between Eugene (Outlaw) and Lorenda (Monfries) Moody along with her five daughters. Nothing gave him greater pleasure and laughter than spending time with his grandchildren and great grandchildren. He held a special place in his heart for Kristina, Khiry, Shantay, LaShay, Kamal and Rita (Frannie) his niece. Preceding him in death was his daughter, Aretha. Sorrowfully, he leaves to cherish his memory: a devoted wife, Lorenda (Monfries) Moody; one son, William E. Moody, Jr.; and one daughter, Mildred Moody; his children's mother, Maisie (Horsey) Moody; five stepdaughters, Pam, Caroline, Joy of Jacksonville, Florida, Maxine and Nadine; six grandchildren, twenty great grandchildren, fourteen step grandchildren, three step great grandchildren; one daughter-in-law, Ann Moody; father-in-law, Harold Monfries; mother-in-law, Mavis Monfries; one brother, Yusef Muhammed (formerly known as Stephen J. Moody); four sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law and legacy of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
