

William E. Taylor

November 4, 1923 - March 24, 2006

DEACON WILLIAM ELMER TAYLOR, son of the late Thomas Edward Taylor and Willie Beatrice Taylor, was born on November 4, 1923 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on March 24, 2006 after a lengthy illness to go home to be with the Lord. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He spent most of his younger life in South Baltimore. He married the late Mrs. Sylvia Taylor and was blessed with six children. He was a devoted husband and father. He was a father who showed his children how to live for Christ and how to suffer and die for Christ. On Mother's Day, May 1955, Elmer and Sylvia Taylor accepted Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. They joined the Wayland Baptist Church then located at Monroe Street and Franklin Street. He always remained active in the church. He served faithfully as a deacon and a choir member. In fact, Deacon Taylor enjoyed assisting the church in any manner needed. His church affiliation included: Wayland Baptist Church, City Temple Baptist Church, People's Baptist Church, Green Memorial Baptist Church, Victory in Jesus Baptist Church and Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church. His love and dedication to God, his wife, his children and his relatives were a source of inspiration to all who knew him. Elmer was a giving, loving and kind-hearted person who placed the needs of his family before his own. Anyone who spent time in his presence could attest to his love, tenderness, wisdom, generosity, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. We will always treasure the prayers that he prayed and the songs of Zion that filled the atmosphere while he demonstrated his love for God. He leaves to cherish his memory: six children, Ernest, Delores, Sylvester, Brenda, Randolph and Rudolph; four daughters-in-law, Shirley, Linda, Uelah, and Hilda; one brother, Herman Taylor; one sister, Martha Tyler; one brother-in-law, Vernon Moore; two sisters-in-law, Theresa Arnold and Ada Robertson; ten grandchildren, one grandson-in-law, one granddaughter-in-law, seven great grandchildren; a special friend, Laura Wilkins; and a host of other relatives and friends. Lovingly submitted, The Family

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My heartfelt condolences to your family on the death of your loved one. Please be comforted by the promise of the resurrection recorded in the bible in Acts 24:15 , which tells us that our loved ones will be resurrected. So one day we can see our loved ones again, and never have to feel the pain of ever losing them again. May you find comfort in his promises.##imported-begin##R

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor our cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the loss of our loved ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us.##imported-begin##B Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to your family. Please be comforted in knowing that Jesus demonstrated the power of the resurrection at John 11:38-44. We also have the promise that Almighty God, Jehovah will remove our enemy death at 1 Cor. 15:26. May you find comfort in the scriptures during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
