“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences. Losing a loved one in death is a most difficult thing to contend with. We miss our loved ones so much when they pass away. This pain and sorrow was never in God's heart for us to go through. he is the source of all life, and he hates death. That is why he makes this wonderful promise at 1st Cor 15:26, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Yes death has been an enemy of mankind for far too long, but one day all sickness and death will be gone forever. Isaiah 25,8. Jehovah promises at Rev 21:8 that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore; because these former things will have passed away." As for the dead, they are in the memorial tombs awaiting a resurrection back to life. John 5:28,29 shows that one day they will hear the voice of the Christ and come out of those tombs. May you be comforted by these promises, and strengthened by God's word.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
