“ My deepest sympathy to the family at this most difficult time. Noone wants to lose a loved one in death. It's the most devastating thing we face in life. I feel for you, because all to often I have had the experience. Will we ever see an end to sickness and death? The bible is the only source we can turn to for truthful, satisfying answers. The scriptures tell us at Isaih 33:24, and Isaiah 25,8 that one day no resident will say, "I am sick, and that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. That us good news indeed, knowing that things will not always be the way that they are now, but it lets us know that Jehovah God has wonderful things in store for those who love him. Contact me please if you would like to know how and how long it will be before these wonderful blessings tak place. I will gladly answer any questions you may have.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences goes out to your family. The scriptures gives us real comfort through the resurrection hope. Jesus demonstrated the power of the resurrection at John 11:38-44. Also, Almighty God promises to remove our enemy death at 1 Cor 14:26. May this give you the strength and encouragement you need at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
