

William Franklin Daniels

November 24, 1932 - April 6, 2005

William Richard Daniels, Sr., son of the late Berman E. and Martha Daniels, was born on November 24, 1932 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Wednesday, April 6, 2005 at home. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System through high school graduation. His primary career was in construction. He, also, did home improvements and auto mechanics in his spare time. He served proudly during World War II in the United States Army's First Armored Division. He was honorably discharged. He was well known as an avid bowler, affectionately called "Billy D." He participated in many leagues and was on the verge of becoming a pro-bowler until a gun-shot injury. We believed he would have been successful because the kids spent more time in the bowling alley, than at home. He loved animals, especially dogs and his favorite pet was Kojak, a lovable German shepherd. He was known to do kind acts for others without expectation. Many cards were found in his possession from family and friends noting his kindness. One such card from a current neighbor was found thanking him for snacks he purchased for the kids in the neighborhood. He leaves to mourn his memory: an ex-wife and long-time friend, Eulaine Campbell of which two children were born, William Richard Daniels, Jr. and Berman E. Daniels; a close friend, Zenia Spruill of which two children were born, Ericka E. Daniels and Erick R. Daniels; three grandchildren, Marquis Daniels, Keyonte Daniels and Daijah Daniels. He was also blessed to have several extended children, Regina Wright, Robert Patterson, Michael Jackson, John Jackson Jr., Kaylor Butler and Zenia

Thomas; two extended grandchildren, Jaquan Patterson and Mishay Jackson; and a host of other relatives and friends. He will be greatly missed and will be cherished by all those who loved him for years to come.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. A person with such a kind and generous spirit is really imitating Almighty God. And God does not forget such ones. Malachi 3:16 says that he has "a book of remembrance." Job 14:15 reveals that dead ones in God's book (his memory) "will answer" they will come back to life. They will come back to something better, a Paradise earth. Jesus promised this at Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43. May these divinely inspired promises comfort you until that time takes place.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my deepest sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort in the hope of a resurrection expressed at Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
