

William Herbert Graves

March 10, 1937 - March 12, 2013

William Graves, son of the late Joseph Graves and Savannah Graves, was born on March 10, 1937 in Reidsville, North Carolina. He departed this life on March 12, 2013.

William received his education in the Williamburg and Washington School system in North Carolina. When he was a young teenager, he moved from North Carolina to Baltimore, Maryland. Once he was older, he started working at Bethlehem Shipyard where he worked for six Years, and then went on to work for Raymond Metals as a Welder for 23 years. William was also a mechanic, where he assisted his Brother Norris and others on automobile repairs, and assignments. He also participated in many community activities, and provided suggestions to different support groups so he would be an integral part in our society.

William leaves behind his wife Regina Ferguson Graves, his two step sons: Nathaniel and Wayne; four brothers: Ashby, James, Joseph and Norris; six sisters: Althea, Beatrice, Olivia, Velma, Helen, Leatha Mae, and a host of nieces and nephews, along with other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
