

Rev. William Jerome Green, Sr.

November 17, 1940 - September 3, 2018

Life Reflections and Obituary

Pastor William Green a faithful man of God was called home to be with his Heavenly Father on September 3, 2018. William Green was born in Florence, South Carolina on November 17, 1940 to the late Curtis and Alease Green.

He accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age. During his youth years he enjoyed singing, playing the drums and was known as the Lil Drummer Boy. He had a gift for baking deserts and was employed by a local bakery. He became a certified Welder for Greater Richmond Transit Company and a head mechanic training others to become skillful in his field.

He carried a special place in his heart for soul-winning and preaching the gospel to the church and unbelievers. His mission was to build up the Kingdom of God and to see souls saved.

He was licensed and ordained by the late Thomas E. Tyler of Bethany Baptist Church in Richmond, VA. Pastor Green was called to First Calvary Baptist Church with his loving wife, Evangelist Elizabeth Green where they dedicated their lives to do Gods work. Pastor Green attended The Ministry Training Center and The Minister Ambassador Lyceum in Richmond, VA.

They established the Richmond Christian Charity Organization and mentored youth for the Youth Involvement Center hosing a variety of youth activities and resided over the Feeding Ministry for the less fortunate.

Pastor Green and his wife loved ministering together in marital counseling, visiting and praying for the sick and shut-in. Their compassion led them to start a prison and nursing home ministry. His wife was his right hand, his heart, and his joy. He was a member of his family singing group The BGT'S.

Being a man after Gods own heart he loved and cherished his family and church family. Pastor Green always wore a smile of compassion on his face, had a humble spirit and showed generosity to all he came in contact with.

Pastor Green of First Calvary Baptist Church leaves the doors of the church open and a Legacy behind to continue forever.

He was proceeded in death by his son, Earl Green; mother, Alease Green; father, Curtis Green; mother-in-law, Eliza White; sister, Dora Fleming; three granddaughters, Darshell Dinkins, Shannon Hently and Shantel Boone.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory his beautiful wife, Evangelist Elizabeth Green; seven daughters, Tameka Green, Sharita Smith, Sonya Green, Deborah (Herbert) Watson, Arnethia (Leon) Bray, Amanda (Carol) Brown and Sandra (Angelo) Pimienta; six sons, William Green Jr., Curtis Green, Antonio Green, Donald (Carolyn) Boone, George (Denise) Boone and Anthony Boone; twenty-seven grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren; one brother, Woodrow Green and devoted friends Reverend Clarence Boyd, Ann Bradshaw and Tommy Tipton; a host of family and friends.
