

William H. Hardison

January 15, 1950 - November 27, 2001

William H. Hardison, affectionately known as Dusty, the son of the late William H. Hardison Sr., and Verna Bell Hardison, was born on January 15, 1950 in Ayden, North Carolina. He was called home November 27, 2001 after a tragic fire. Dusty attended the Baltimore City Public Schools and was later employed at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. In 1974 he married the former Sylvia Taylor. Out of this union was one child born Kenyatta Hardison. Dusty loved music, cooking, friends, and he loved to make people laugh. Dusty leaves special memories to: a wife, Sylvia Hardison; five children-three daughters, Wanda Hardison, Kim Loyal and Kenyatta Hardison and two sons, Gazard Hardison and William Hardison III; his mother, Verna Bell Hardison; four sisters, Emma Benton, Dolly Hardison from New York, and Barbara Hardison and Lisa Berrain from Baltimore; two brothers, George and James Hardison (the late Donald Ray Hardison from New York preceded him in death); one sister-in-law, Gwendolyn Hardison; one brother-in-law, Tyrone Berrain; four grandchildren, and a host of family and friends, including a special, devoted friend, Bernadette Wilson.
