

William H. McCrorey

October 4, 1953 - March 13, 2006

WILLIAM HENRY McCROREY was born on October 4, 1953 to Irene McCrorey and the late Walter McCrorey. He so suddenly departed this life after a long battle with a lengthy illness. He leaves many family members and friends behind not to forget who he was but to let us know that the fight with the devil was over and he's with the Lord. Many knew him fondly as "Will," "Whoop," "Pop-pop" and "Fats" with his open heart and outspoken ways. William received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He participated in several activities such as football, basketball, and many more. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Irene McCrorey; late father, Walter McCrorey; many sisters and brothers; his wife, Eunice McCrorey; mother-in-law, Daisy Barney; two sons, Eric (Tay) McCrorey and the late William (Shanky) McCrorey; three daughters, Lynette (Lady) McCrorey, Shawnell (Shawn) McCrorey and LaTarsha (Baby Dumplin) McCrorey; three granddaughters, Shykia McCrorey, Kaila Cory and Kalia Rideout; one stepdaughter, Tia; two stepsons, Joey and Kenny; three best grandsons ever, Tyejaih McCrorey, Davonta (Butterman) McCrorey and Quamonta (Meatman) Jackson; a devoted godson and friend, Wayne Cash; and a host of other family and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family, I am so sorry for your loss. May you be comforted by the fact that God has a purpose to put an end to death, and all of it's causes in the very near future. !st Cor. 15:26 tells us; "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Daniel 12:2 promises that many of those asleep in the dust of the ground who will wake up." So we do have the opportunity to see our loved ones again. May those thoughts bring you joy as you await that glorious day.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. Now and in the days to come may you find comfort not only from your precious memories but also from,"the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
