

William H. Stokes

July 28, 1941 - January 9, 2002

William H. Stokes, Jr., was born July 28, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland, son of the late Lillian and William H. Stokes, Sr. He departed from this life on January 9, 2002. William was educated by the Baltimore City Public School System. He was affectionately known as “June.” June was a very loving person who was loved by everyone. He was dedicated to his job, working as a Baltimore School Crossing Guard and also helping the children in school. He met and married Gladys A. Carrington in 1960, and from that union he had two children. He later united and married Estella Davis, and out of this union he had six children and two stepchildren. June leaves to cherish his loving memory: his devoted wife, Estella; his children, Kevin, Renita, Tawana, the late Latonia, Rodney, Corey, Damond and Darnell Stokes, Veronica and Samuel; thirteen grandchildren, one great-granddaughter; two daughters-in-law, Margaret and Danielle; one son-in-law, Ronnie Brown; his sister, Dorothy Stinson; and his sister-in-law, Carolyn Cooks; a host of nieces, nephew, other relatives and friends including a devoted friend, Mac Coleman.
