

Deacon William Hamilton, Sr

March 15, 1919 - September 21, 2013

WILLIAMS , HAMILTON SR, was born on March 15, 1919 in Lake City, S.C. He never knew his parents because they passed away when he was an infant, so he was reared by his aunt, Annie Bell Coates. On Saturday, September 21, 2013 after a brief illness, God called Williams from labor to reward. He was preceded in death by his wife Ruth and three sons, Earl, Dennis, and Douglas.

William was educated in the Lake City Public School system and there he met and married Ruth Fadden and moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Out of this union, five boys were born; Earl, Dennis, Douglas, William, Jr, and Darryl. He was employed by American Standard Company and became a plumber and a construction worker who provided well for his family.

Williams, affectionately known to his family as “Pop-Pop”, had spirit and loving personality. He gave his life to the Lord and became a member of the Alpha and Omega Worship Center, under the leadership of his wife, Ruth and after her passing; he became a member of Greater Refuge Apostolic Temple, under the leadership of his son, Apostle Darryl E. Hamilton. He loved singing songs like, “Shine on Me” and “I Won't Have to Cry No More”.

He served faithful as Senior Deacon of the ministry by keeping things in line. Make people laugh was one of his favorite hobbies, however, when necessary, he would tell you the truth. He enjoyed watching sports, spending time with family, and having a good meal. He loved to eat Milky Way candy bars and drink Pepsi. He was a devoted family man and generous to those in need. He always shared his wisdom and gave advise to family and friends.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Apostle Darryl E. Hamilton and William Hamilton, Jr.; one grandchild, Melissa Stanley; one niece, Jacqueline Coleman-Blake; one nephew, Karl Douglas; two daughters-in-law, Rene Hamilton and Sandra Hamilton; ten great grandchildren; ten great great niece and nephews; two devoted godsons, George W. Wheeler and Michael Tilghman; as well as a host of other relatives and friends; and a devoted church family that loved him deeply.

“ i miss you grandpop for real words cant explain how hurt i am please watch over me!

Rip Dee Dee Brown - January 08, 2014 at 06:01 PM

“ To the family of Mr. Hamilton I offer and encouraging word from the Bible to help hopefully alleviate some of the hurt that has come to you all from a lost of a loved one. It's in the scripture of Acts 24:15, which states, " there will be a RESURRECTION of the righteous and unrighteousness." So it will be a hope to see you lost one again.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
